Heigh ho. heigh ho. It's time for Snowy White's show!

IRVINE, CA — And what a show it will be! MenAlive, Orange County Gay Men's Chorus, brightens the season as it returns to the Irvine Barclay Theater for A Snowy White Christmas, its 12th holiday concert on December 6 and 7, 2013.

They'll warm wintery hearts with songs from the beloved animated movie Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs including I'm Wishing, Some Day My Prince Will Come, and Heigh Ho, as well as traditional Christmas classics including Let it Snow, Sleigh Ride and a moving a cappella performance of Alleluia by Randall Thompson.

Snow White and MenAlive's 120-voice chorus will be joined onstage by dancing dwarfs, playful forest creatures, and Snow White's son Snowy. By popular demand, MenAlive will perform its entire 2013-2014 schedule at the Irvine Barclay. Tickets for A Snowy White Christmas start at $35 and are available at www.thebarclay.org or 949/854-4646 Ext. 1

MenAlive is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, MenAlive's mission is to "Through music, men's voices unite as a vehicle to entertain, educate, bring healing, joy, community and build about 30 members to be one of Orange County's largest and most respected choruses, and is an integral part of the southern California arts scene. MenAlive performed a highly successful A Winter Spectacular last year with the legendary Liza Minnelli at the Segerstrom Center for the Arts in Costa Mesa, and with Broadway superstar Ben Vereen in Academy Affair, a fundraising concert at the Center Club in Costa Mesa.

Please see the contact information at the top for more information about this and other MenAlive performances.
